So, does Astra Lost in Space Vol. 5 botch the landing? Yes and no. On one hand, the final chapters definitely suffer from a major loss of narrative steam. With that said, everything prior to them is excellent. Shinohara's line-work is clean and pleasing to look at throughout, and there's a lot of effective suspense.

My main qualm with this volume's artwork is just that Yun-hua's body is sometimes rendered very awkwardly. Her head is often smaller than her bust to the extent that it looks unintentionally comical in its ridiculousness. Overall, Astra Lost in Space Vol. 3 is a nearly flawless read. Several characters receive game-changing development,
