March 2012 A compelling,
fascinating and very well-written book, as one would expect from Harold Evans.
Unfortunately however it is completely spoilt by the huge number of typos in the Good times and bad. 13

Consider God's work! Who can straighten what God has made crooked? 14 When times are good, enjoy the good; when times are bad, consider: God has made the former as well as the latter so that people can't discover anything that will come to be after them.

15 I have seen everything in my pointless lifetime: the righteous person may die in spite of their righteousness; then again, the wicked may live long in spite of their wickedness.
